ONLY A FEW MINUTES
WALK FROM COLLEGE

From the Principal . . .

Two years ago the College received a letter from an old student who was teaching in Nairobi asking if we could help by sending money to provide clothing for the children she was teaching. The students of the College decided to organise a Garden Party and within two weeks had raised over £200. The success of this first Garden Party inspired us to make it an annual event and this year the committee has been especially ambitious and is aiming to raise money for a very worthy cause—a kidney unit. It has organised a large draw and with this comprehensive programme for the Garden Party it is hoped to reach the target figure of £1,000.

I welcome you to the College and I hope you will enjoy your visit.

Beckett Park Estate Monks, Mayors and Money !

The land on which the College stands was once owned by the monks of Kirkstall Abbey. It was called New Grange. There would be a simple stone building to shelter the monks who were here involved in sheep-rearing.

When the abbey was dissolved in 1539 the land came on the market. A house was built on the site where the Foxcroft family lived. This house was rebuilt in 1626 by Benjamin Wade whose family continued in possession of the estate until the early 19th century. Two members of the Wade family served as Mayors of Leeds.

Walter Wade rebuilt the house in 1752 and there are remains of this building at the rear of the present house.

In the early 19th century the occupiers of the house included Samuel Buck, Recorder of Leeds and John Marshall, prosperous linen manufacturer.

In 1834 William Beckett, banker and later M.P. took over the estate which still bears his name. His coat of arms can be seen on the front of the house which became known as Kirkstall Grange in the 19th century.

A number of alterations were made to the house especially about 1858 when bay windows and a balustrade were added. William Beckett, a much respected man, died in 1863 worth £700,000.

Members of the Beckett family continued to live at Kirkstall Grange until about 1908 when the house and about 40 acres of land were bought by the Leeds Education Committee and a "training college" for teachers was opened in 1912.

New buildings were erected then and at intervals later but happily the old house, which has seen so many changes, remains in use and serves as a reminder of the continuity of English life.

THE GARDEN PARTY SETTING

WELCOME . . . and Thank You

On behalf of all students and staff of the College we welcome you to this Garden Party. Our intention is to provide you with a most interesting and enjoyable afternoon's entertainment and we feel confident you will make our efforts worthwhile.

Our aim today is to raise money to donate towards a Kidney Unit.

You will agree there are few causes more deserving than this, and we are proud to help in such a practical manner.

We would like to thank all those who have supported us in making this Garden Party possible but most of all YOU. The success of any venture such as this depends upon YOUR GOODWILL and without your support such desirable charity work could never materialise.

Please be generous in your support and enjoy yourselves.
