Dear Mr Woodhouse.

Here is the deadly bill. I hope it is not too big for these hard times & the frame has come out at more than I thought it would; I had not had one of this size for sometime and I'm afraid my memory was at fault - as I went back over accounts to find out as I did not want you to be overcharged & however I will be good and not make any charge for the photos. I would like them to be on me.

I enclose the insurance Policy which I hope you will find in order and as you have a committee to deal with I am enclosing the frame maters and the packers accounts and will be glad if you will return them to me in due course

I hope and suppose you are not at the College but somewhere off in the wilds — and Sordie how I wish I were too but I have just started a portrait of a very difficult-Teuch lady and Sin afraid there is no holiday for me until it is finished though Sin already tired out.

Kind remembrances to yourself and to

M^{rs} Woodhouse.

Yours Sincerely

Edward Jenner
