

BOARD FOR THE FINAL EXAMINATION OF
STUDENTS IN YORKSHIRE TRAINING COLLEGES

FINAL EXAMINATION, 1937.

PRINCIPLES OF EDUCATION II.

(SPECIAL METHOD COURSE B.)

MONDAY, June 21st. 2.0—4.0.

Carnegie Physical Training College.

[Answer four questions.]

1. What factors influence progression in free-standing gymnastic exercises? Why is careful progression so important in the teaching of Vaulting and Agility exercises? ✓

2. "The physical and mental qualities of boys considerably influence the construction and presentation of gymnastic tables." Discuss this statement with special reference to boys of 10+ and 15+. ref. p. 100. 100. 100. 100.

3. What difficulties surround the teaching of rhythmic exercises? Illustrate your answer with appropriate examples. ✗

4. Indicate the progressive steps in the teaching of

(a) Hn. spring. ✓

(b) Hz. Thro. V. (Horse L.).

5. What, in your opinion, is the place of gymnastics in a scheme of physical recreation for adults? ✗

6. Write down the skeleton plan of Section 2 of Part I of a full gymnastic table. Why is interest so frequently lost in this part of the table? Illustrate your answer with examples. ✓